ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE.

Arthur Chatterton Stock Co.

Checkers, Thomas Ross' bright breezy comedy drama, will be presented by the Arthur Chatterton company for their matinee performance this afternoon. The play was presented Tuesevening and pleased immensely. A rich costuming, and a luxurious scenic display places the play on the same high plane, of all the productions so far offered by this clever organization. This evening, if you want to enjoy two and a half hours of the best comedy offered in years, don't miss Denman Thompson's great rural comedy. Our New Minister, in which William Convers starred up until last season The comedy claims the record of a good hearty laugh, every minute of the entire action of the play. Mr. Charterton in the title role offers a somewhat different character than any has so far portrayed, and in which he is par excellent. Miss Melvin will be seen in a strong emotional role. Mr. McCarthy, Mr. MacEntee and Jane Tazr handle the comedy roles to perfection, and are said to be a whole show, in themselves,

Friday night Mr. Chatterton makes the extraordinary announcement of Richard Mansfield's great play, Old Heidelberg, with all the special scenery, costumes and incidental musical numbers, a play never before presented at popular prices, and the first time by a traveling stock company.

COLONIEL THEATRE.

The Eye of a God, Ecpeptionally Strong Three-Reel Feature.

A picture of exceptional merit is the feature at the Coloniel today, entitled The Eye of a God. The three reels of thrillin gevents record the bappenings to the possessor of a brown diamond known as the eye of a god, and the brilliant and hair-raising chimax shows the thief who has stolen the gem, being pursued by the detectives until he overturns the auto he is in, to block the path and then attempts to end it all by jumping over the precipice, but the plucky detective pursues and finally captures and returns the culprit to the penitentiary when he had previously escaped. The Clod, one of the most wonderful Luon two reel features ever released, ells the story of a Mexican upris-g, with marvelous battle scenes, and be peerless Romaine Fielding in the two reel features ever released, Francis Bushman plays in anther thriller entitled For Old Time's ake, a picture of scenic beauty and hotographic excellence.

NORWICH TOWN

Marrid Keeley's Sight Restored After Operation for Cataracts-Birthday Gathering at Albert Green's.

David Keeley, long time resident of Norwich Town, now at the Sheltering Arms, and who is over 90 years of age, is recovering successfully from an op-eration for cataracts performed last Thursday. The bandages have been removed and he can see nicely, wearing new only a shield for protection,

Results of the Gale.

No such windstorm as that of Tuesday has been seen since March 27 when trees were uprooted and travel-ing made difficult. Tuesday afternoon a tree was blown across the road on Wannyeeus Hill, in the path of the wagon carrying the children from the West Town street school. Large limbs tell from trees in other localities and the wind, blowing all remaining winter apples from the trees, has rendered them unmarketable.

Guests at Birthday Celebration, Mrs. Mary Green and son, Walter Green, of Sterling, came Saturday to be present in honor of the birthday of the former's son Albert Green of Huntington avenue. Other guests for the enniversary were Miss Camilie Gamble of Packer and William Bishop of Jew-ett City, all returning a few days later
